1 - Evolution

Change to obtain quality work.

1.1 > 44 - Inexperience

One is still too weak to take decisive action.

1.2 > 13

One has a strong potential and educates oneself.

1.1.2 > 33 - Indecisiveness

One needs to listen before asking questions.

1.3 > 10

After a sustained activity, one doubts their success.

1.1.3 > 6 - Expecting a solution

One prepares to stop to help.

1.2.3 > 25

Friends ask one to wait until the shock is dissipated before checking.

1.1.2.3 > 12 - Suffice to say

One wants to catch up so they don't answer the others.

1.4 > 9

One can address the issues.

1.1.4 > 57 - Giving up wanting

One waits until the others abandon.

1.2.4 > 37 - Don't leave too fast

One checks before leaving that they have given their loved ones what they need.

1.1.2.4 > 53

One asks others to come back with other proposals because their reforms do not inspire confidence.

1.3.4 > 61

One abandons their place with their loved ones.

1.1.3.4 > 59 - Abandoning those who do not correct their mistakes

One stops because others do not hurry to find solutions to their mistakes.

1.2.3.4 > 42 - Worrying for their loved ones

One asks others to look at the difficulty of being able to rest while the weakest face danger.

1.1.2.3.4 > 20 - Accept the discussion

One explains to others that they have to come back to discuss because the rescue is delayed.

1.5 > 14

One has understood the needs of their times.

1.1.5 > 50

One gives up working because they have sought too quickly instead of preparing.

1.2.5 > 30

One warns their relatives that they need to examine other proposals.

1.1.2.5 > 56

One gives up their place to help others find their friends.

1.3.5 > 38 - Reject the dubious methods

One cannot teach others because they do not trust the new methods.

1.1.3.5 > 64

One explains to those who fear the difficulty that they have already passed it without help.

1.2.3.5 > 21

One checks before reforming that no problem needs to be solved.

1.1.2.3.5 > 35

One shows others that they need to stop their break to finish faster.

1.4.5 > 26

To succeed, the reforms must not be too shocking.

1.1.4.5 > 18

Others do not want to share because they have not been shown the modesty of one's reserves.

1.2.4.5 > 22

It will be difficult to free oneself if one commits to answering all questions.

1.1.2.4.5 > 52

One wants to recover so they make no difficulties with others.

1.3.4.5 > 41

One is not ready to give up the training of the youngest, so they check the methods.

1.1.3.4.5 > 4 - Paying attention before reforming

Before leaving, one wants to make sure that the others have finished cleaning up.

1.2.3.4.5 > 27 - Concealing one's difficulties so not to disturb others

One does not want to return to those who complain.

1.1.2.3.4.5 > 23

One helps others to tidy up before asking them if they are willing to continue their hospitality.

1.6 > 43 - Forgetting where ones strength comes from

One can blame oneself for not doing anything when others needed to be heard.

1.1.6 > 28 - Abandoning their disputes

One asks their opponents to seek an agreement.

1.2.6 > 49 - Helping one's relatives to recover

One leaves alone because they are in a hurry to free their place for those who are unable to rest.

1.1.2.6 > 31

The loved ones want to learn, so one hurries to finish their preparation without them.

1.3.6 > 58

One lets a relative who no longer wants to be supported continue alone.

1.1.3.6 > 47

One lets the most able recover.

1.2.3.6 > 17

One is satisfied with what they have without concern for the others.

1.1.2.3.6 > 45 - No longer wanting to suffer

One does not return because they do not have the strength to endure such constraints anymore.

1.4.6 > 5

One wants to know if they must continue to help others enduring the shocks.

1.1.4.6 > 48

One waits for other volunteers to replace those who have been lost.

1.2.4.6 > 63 - Staying away from a problem

One returns after a rupture, without replying to their close ones.

1.1.2.4.6 > 39

One stops blocking the review of reforms.

1.3.4.6 > 60 - Abandoning loved ones

One neglects their relatives so they lose their certainties.

1.1.3.4.6 > 29

One needs to rest, but as the others do not trust, one shows them their difficulties.

1.2.3.4.6 > 3

One looks for what the others want before they notice the neglect.

1.1.2.3.4.6 > 8

One evades the questions of those who are erratic.

1.5.6 > 34

One guides others toward the exit.

1.1.5.6 > 32

One hesitates to go see their entourage, because they notice that others are slow to get involved.

1.2.5.6 > 55 - Leaving without answering the judgments

Others reject criticism because they need to calm down.

1.1.2.5.6 > 62

One asks others if they want to resume their work.

1.3.5.6 > 54

When others don't want to accomodate the weakest, they are asked to wait aloof.

1.1.3.5.6 > 40 - Waiting for the pressure to drop before completing the sharing

One asks their loved ones to be there to receive their gifts.

1.2.3.5.6 > 51 - Correcting their relatives

One organizes to respond to those who have not kept their promises.

1.1.2.3.5.6 > 16

One has to do more checks before they can restore order with others.

1.4.5.6 > 11

One needs to finish preparing before pursuing.

1.1.4.5.6 > 46 - Giving informations to one's opponents

After deciding to reveal everything to others, one must forego their independence.

1.2.4.5.6 > 36

One receives a warning as an incentive to continue making progress.

1.1.2.4.5.6 > 15

One asks irrelevant questions for not obeying immediately.

1.3.4.5.6 > 19

One reveals their ideas without waiting for others to speak.

1.1.3.4.5.6 > 7

When others do not want to calm down, one makes plans to bring them to their senses.

1.2.3.4.5.6 > 24

One does not return to claim what others have taken before they need it.

1.1.2.3.4.5.6 > 2 - Leaving the well-trodden paths

One wants to free themselves from constraints so they leave with the others once again.

2 - Obedience

Being able to help, without making decisions.

2.1 > 24

By crossing the limits, one takes distance.

2.2 > 7

One stops listening to the explanations because they are lost but will ask later.

2.1.2 > 19

One prefers telling the truth to others, so they can have confidence.

2.3 > 15

One only takes what is necessary to carry out their task.

2.1.3 > 36 - Maturing one's thoughts before acting

One does not want to stop thinking.

2.2.3 > 46
